Harvest Festival

Thank you to all of you who sent in food for our Harvest Festival last week.

As you can see we had a lot of food donated that was really appreciated by the organisers of the Thirsk Food Bank.

Sporting Competitions

Football at Topcliffe

Monday 4th October saw the first match of our 2021 season! Following the easing of lockdown restrictions, it was incredible to be hosted by Topcliffe Academy for a friendly football match. The players were an absolute credit to the school and both teams showed brilliant sportsmanship, respect and teamwork.

With a squad of 8 (Kylie, Ella, Lara, Harry, George, Will, Callum and Max), we arrived with a mixture of feelings but filled with excitement at the opportunity. Carlton Miniott started well, with a goal scored within the first 3 minutes, followed by a quick response by Topcliffe leaving the score 1-1 with only 5 minutes on the clock. After early nerves settled, and a disallowed Carlton Miniott goal, the game became a fast paced match, with brilliant attacking and defending from both sides.

Each player was hugely important to the end result - Max was outstanding in goal, saving many close range shots and equally strong in defence; Harry made some very strong defensive tackles and saved some strong shots (his first time in goal); George (who claims he's not really a 'footballer') got stuck into every possible tackle, proving vital in midfield; Lara, proved to be amazing in midfield and towards the end of the game she was all over Topcliffe's goal line, coming close 3 times; Kylie made some excellent defensive tackles, definitely denying a goal! Ella made sure her opponent was never out of her sight and ensured the ball was kept away from our keeper; Callum was incredible on the right wing, delivering some outstanding assists; and finally, Will was fantastic on both the left and central attack!

With 4 goals coming from Will and 1 from Callum (and 4 assists) the game ended 5-4 to Carlton Miniott. Well done team, you were fantastic! Topcliffe enjoyed the game so much that they have requested an 'away' game at Carlton Miniott later in the term - keep an eye on the school diary! Lara left the game saying 'This has been the best day ever...apart from when I got my pet cat' - What a brilliant quote to end the day!

X-Country

Thursday 7th October saw the return of X-Country.

With 43 eager athletes and the ultimate 'can-do' attitude, we were ready to take on the task. We had some incredible runners, who came so close to medals a number of times, who all enjoyed their afternoon!

Well done to the whole team and a special mention to Lara (Y5) and Lily (Y3) for fantastic running that meant they came home with the Gold Medals for Yr 3 Girls and Yr 5 Girls! Super effort from everyone!

Football at South Kilvington

Wednesday 13th October was our second friendly of the 2021-22 campaign. Our Yr 5/6 team (Kylie, Ella, Lara, Orson, Thomas, Max, Will B, Alfie, Sam and Angus) fought out a well-deserved 5-4 win! As with the last game, all players represented the school admirably and worked well as a team.

Angus was brilliant on the wing and in defence; Sam proved solid in defence and in goal (second half); Alfie was superb in centre (with 3 brilliant goals scored); Will was dominant on the right wing, providing many opportunities and playing the ball into the box well; Max was vital in goal (first half) and played well in both defence and midfield later; Thomas was fantastic down the wings, forcing a number of strong tackles; Orson played well in a number of positions (ending the game with a fantastic goal), but most notably in midfield; I don't think there was a position Lara didn't play in but equally strong in every area of the pitch; Kylie had a really good game (using her confidence gained against Topcliffe) and pushed further up the field (scoring a goal even she was surprised about scoring); and finally Ella worked really well in the middle of the pitch. A huge well done to the whole team.

CHAMPIONS!

A huge well done to our Yr 5/6 Boys' Football Team - Ryan, Will B, Callum, Sam, Alfie, Max, George, Will R, Seb and Harry.

An absolutely brilliant afternoon of football saw our team undefeated in 7 games, resulting in 10 gold medals and the trophy. Each and every player worked hard for some outstanding results with some incredible attacking and defending observed.

We had some VERY proud footballers on their return. One Young Leader spoke to Mrs Ward at the end of the tournament and stated 'You have the strongest Yr 5/6 football team I've ever seen!' - Well done, Team! Be proud of yourselves!
